In this connection, I beg to state, Sir, during my service in the Department of Health I was kept on tour from 1929 to 1939 It was only in 1939 I was given a stationary place at Seringapatam where I was in-charge Chief Officer for nearly three morths in addition to my work and at Channapatna where, I was in-charge Chief Officer for two months In both the above places I have discharged my duties satisfactorily

Now that I have been posted as an Assessing Officer I have to keep on moving from place to place at short intervals I am a family man of five children all of whom are school - going .I feel that my short stay in several places would jeopardise their studies I cannot think of stationing them at any particular place in these hard days of food crisis

As such ,I most respectfully request you, Sir, to kindly post me as a Chief Officer of some Municipality where an High ~~Exex~~ School exists by the time I finish my assessing work in the Municipalities of Tarikere and Narsimharajapura for which act of kindness I shall ever remain grateful

In this connection, I beg to state, I learn, that the Government have recently sanctioned a post of a Chief Officer at Chamarajanagar The Chief Officer, of Tarikere Town Municipality has hied for a transfer. I humbly request you Sir to kindly fix me up at Chamarajanagar or at Tarikere Town, wherein I have worked as an Assessing officer, and also as a Chief Officer, in addition to my work, while the Chief Officer, was on leave from 5-4-1946 to 13-5-46

As already represented, I have young children all of whom are school going In these hard days of food crisis, I cannot station them at any place, as there are no elderly persons at home to help them to secure taken an accession of living, other than myself and also as it would be extremely costly to maintain myself and my family at the present price So such, I most respectfully request you, Sir, to consider my case sympathetically and fix me up as Chief officer, either at Tarikere subsequent subsequent to transfer of present Chief officer, or to Channarayapatna or to any other place
